MEET NICKY

| TEDX SPEAKER |
| VOICE OF SMART BUSINESS GROWTH |
| SALES & LEADERSHIP STRATEGIST |

With over 20 years leading high-performing sales teams across media and professional services, Nicky has seen exactly where pressure builds, momentum breaks, and performance stalls in fast-growing businesses.

Today, she's known for challenging outdated hustle narratives and helping businesses scale with impact, not exhaustion.

Nicky's perspective is shaped by lived experience in both business and corporate. A pivotal moment in her career sparked a decade-long pursuit of what sustainable growth looks like as a smarter path to success - one that doesn't sacrifice wellbeing or performance.

These insights underpin every keynote, facilitation and coaching engagement she delivers.

Her straight-talking, high-impact style makes her a standout on any stage delivering keynotes, workshops and sessions that energise audiences and drive immediate, lasting change.

TEDx speaker, author of Healthy Hustle, and host of the Smart Business Growth podcast, Nicky delivers real-world insights and practical tools that empower leaders to shift from firefighting to focused growth.

SPEAKING TOPICS

1. SMART BUSINESS GROWTH

A modern approach to sales performance

- Why traditional sales approaches no longer work
- How buyer behaviour and decision-making have fundamentally changed
- The shift from reactive selling to confident decision enablement
- Creating clarity, trust and momentum in complex, high-stakes sales environments

A practical keynote exploring how the role of sales has shifted, and what must be done differently to drive smart, sustainable growth.

2. SUCCESS WITHOUT SACRIFICE

Designing success that lasts beyond the busy trap

- Why overwork is quietly undermining focus, engagement and decision quality
- The organisational cost of “always on” cultures and chronic busyness
- Energy as a strategic asset
- How leaders design ways of working that support sustainable success

A thought provoking keynote on designing ways of working that support sustainable success without burnout or overwork.

3. THE COURAGE TO DO THINGS DIFFERENTLY

Breaking cycles, choosing a better way

- Why success patterns are often inherited, not chosen
- How unconscious cycles shape the way we lead + live
- What happens when we lead on autopilot
- What it really takes to redefine success and choose a better way

A powerful, story-led keynote that challenges the audience to break unhelpful patterns and choose a better way forward.

WHAT THEY SAY

“Nicky captivated our audience from the first word, delivering not just inspiration but tangible, actionable insights that left a lasting impact.

Nicky has a rare ability to challenge thinking, spark meaningful conversations, and empower people to take bold action. If you're looking for a keynote speaker who will elevate your event and truly shift mindsets, Nicky is the one.”
